

AGENDA – Marine Mammal Management in Oil Spill Response

When: September 8, 2021 (0800 - 5:00pm PST) Register: OilSpills101.response.news/marine-mammal-workshop

Opening Lineup

- Effects of acute oil exposure on cetaceans
- Effects of acute oil exposure on sea otters
- Overview of Washington State’s new wildlife regulations
- Overview of oil spill volunteer programs in Washington State
- Overview of marine wildlife in Washington State
- Oil and Baleen at OHMSETT (2016)

Day of Presentations

Morning Sessions (beginning 0800 AM, Pacific Time)

- Phases of wildlife response in oil spills involving sea otters
- Phases of wildlife response in oil spills involving seals and sea lions
- Primary components of sea otter rehabilitation
- Permits and networks for wildlife response
- Marine Mammal Response During Refugio Oil Spill (California, 2015)
- San Jorge Response (Uruguay, 1997)

1130-1300 Lunch

Afternoon Sessions

- Whale reconnaissance and tracking
- Whale deterrence

Live Discussion

- Workshop will conclude with a live, scenario-based discussion with audience participation

End 1700 (Pacific Time)